1. On 10 December 1951 one armored regiment of the 3 Field Army entrained in Nanking, with over 30 tanks and 2 armored cars. The regiment was en route to coastal areas in Chekiang and Fukien to strengthen defenses against possible Nationalist landings there; it was to be stationed from Wenchou (120-38, 28-01) to Amoy.
2. As it passed through Shanghai the regiment was met by SHU T'ung (舒同), chief of the Political Department of the East China Military Area.

Comment. According to [redacted] Chinese with long Far East experience, this regiment was probably part of the 3 Armored Division. The armored cars were believed equipped with Soviet-made automatic guns.

 Comment. According to information available the 3 Armored Division is subordinate to the 4 Field Army.
